 (S), (P) was interviewed at the Army Criminal Investigative Division office at Fort Stewart, Georgia. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agents, (P) provided the following information:

(P) is a sergeant in the 4th Brigade, 3rd Infantry Division, Fort Stewart, Georgia. He was the first line supervisor for ISAAC AGUIGUI for approximately 4-5 weeks in October-November 2011. When he first met AGUIGUI, he was a broken soldier and needed a lot of support. (P) believed him to be troubled and that he made mistakes in the past. (P) was in charge of quarters and AGUIGUI worked as a runner for him. (P) encountered him crying in a hallway and sought to get him help.

(P) set up appointments for AGUIGUI with the chaplain, his bank, and the department of motor vehicles. AGUIGUI had a Jeep Cherokee that needed to be fixed, insured, and registered. He knew that AGUIGUI was living with (P)

(P) knew that AGUIGUI'S wife died and that he received a large amount of money in insurance payments. (P) would ask AGUIGUI if he could afford the repairs on his Jeep and AGUIGUI replied that he could afford ten Jeeps. AGUIGUI told (P) that he invested the money.

(P) gave AGUIGUI time off from work during normal duty hours. He told AGUIGUI to stay out of trouble and always answer his telephone when (P) called. AGUIGUI offered to give (P) money. When (P) was asked if he ever accepted money from AGUIGUI, (P) refused to answer and asked to speak with a lawyer. At this point, questioning was stopped and the interviewing agents left the room.

After advising (P) of his rights, the interviewing agents re-approached (P) to ask about unrelated matters. (P) stated that AGUIGUI never threatened him and he was not aware of any court-martial proceedings.
